Bibliography

The following references have been particularly helpful to me in creating the Wilber's War Trilogy.. They do not by any means comprise a comprehensive list of World War II Pacific Theater sources. Many of these volumes and documents are now available on the Internet.

Official military journals, histories, and operations reports of the following units during World War II, U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA):

172nd, 103rd, and 169th Infantry Regiments of the 43rd Infantry Division.

152nd, 169th, 103rd, and 192nd Field Artillery Battalions of the 43rd Infantry Division.

27th, 145th, 148th, and 161st Infantry Regiments; see also Karolevitz reference below.

43rd Infantry Division Historical Report, Luzon Campaign, 1945.

History of the 103rd Infantry Regiment, 43rd Division, January 1, 1945 – May 31, 1945.

[Detailed narrative history of the entire Luzon campaign for the regimental combat team that included Wilber's artillery battalion]

Logs of naval units:
